"My First Time Fishing"

My first time fishing was when I was 9 years old.

I went with my uncle, he was like my father, we used to call him Omo Goy. His name was Gregorio Orman.

The first time I went fishing with him was in a canoe in the lagoon, at night. But at six we had to be in bed. We went, we were in front of the park there, and then we were fishing, fishing. [The fishermen] have their tricks.

I got sleepy.

I said: "Uncle, I want to sleep"

He said: "Ok, this is what you do"

I will never forget it. The plank I was sitting on, because the canoe has two seats, one at the front and one at the back. I was sitting at the back and he was sitting up front/middle. I had to grab the plank I was sitting on, take it off, put it across, and sleep on it. And I slept really well. That was the first time I went fishing.
